

1. Which character do you feel differently about now than you did when you were first introduced to him or her? Why? (What did that person do to show they are different? How do their actions show they have changed?)
2. Lemry's class is discussing abortion. What is your stand on abortion? What are your reasons for believing that way?

Answer each question in 3-5 sentences: